SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA
COUNTY OF ORANGE
SITTING AS THE JUVENILE COURT
MISCELLANEOUS ORDER NO. M-2019-3

TITLE: THE ACCOUNTABILITY COMMITMENT PROGRAM
TO: THE CHIEF PROBATION OFFICER, COUNTY OF ORANGE

FOR GOOD CAUSE SHOWN THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Chief Probation Officer of Orange County, or designee, is authorized to release youth to the Accountability Commitment Program as follows:

1. Youth who have received Juvenile Court commitments of 120 days or less; or
2. Youth who have received Juvenile Court commitments of more than 120 days, with successful completion of the custodial commitment such that 120 days or less remain to be served; or
3. Youth who have been ordered by the Court to complete specified Accountability Commitment Program days.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that those youth who enter the Accountability Commitment Program shall be required to enter and complete all the remaining commitment, in the Accountability Commitment Program.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that aside from youth ordered into the Accountability Commitment Program by the Court, the Chief Probation Officer, or designee, is authorized to screen youth for possible release to the Accountability Commitment Program pursuant to the following criteria:

- 1 1. The current sustained or prior petition(s) does not involve:
- 2 a. Robbery under section 211 of the Penal Code in which there was the use of a
- 3 deadly weapon (gun, knife, etc.);
- 4 b. Murder under section 187 of the Penal Code;
- 5 c. Sex offenses;
- 6 d. Arson under section 451 of the Penal Code;
- 7 e. Violent felonies;
- 8 f. Weapons offenses;
- 9 g. Weapons on school grounds;
- 10 h. Sale of controlled substances or the possession of controlled substances for
- 11 purposes of sale (e.g., Health and Safety Code, §§ 11351, 11352, 11378 and
- 12 11379).
- 13 i. Criminal threats under Penal Code section 422;
- 14 2. Any current or prior sustained petition that would present a significant risk to the safety of
- 15 the community, youth and/or the program.

16

17 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Chief Probation Officer shall establish criteria for 18 Program eligibility, enrollment, rules and regulations for the Accountability Commitment Program.

19 Participation in the Accountability Commitment Program shall include continuous electronic

20 monitoring using Global Positioning System anklets.

21 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that youth who are alleged to have violated the terms of the

22 Accountability Commitment Program shall be provided with a hearing where the court shall make

23 findings regarding the alleged violation. Further, if the Court finds the alleged violations to be true,

24 the Court shall determine whether the remainder of the original commitment that was pending when

25 the youth was enrolled in the program shall be served in a secure facility or the youth may be re—

26 released to the Program after an appropriate sanction. Youth given the opportunity to participate in

27 the Accountability Commitment Program shall receive custody credits only for time served in a

28 secure juvenile facility. The Probation Officer may recommend credit for days served on the
