

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA COUNTY OF ORANGE

Self-Help Services — Child Support

The Family Law Facilitator's Office can help you with child support issues if you have a case involving the Department of Child Support Services and do not have an attorney. We do not provide legal advice.

How We Can Help

We can help with:

- Establish, Modify, End Child Support
- Reasonable Payment on Arrears
- Reimbursement of Medical Expenses
- Reimbursement or Credit for Overpayment
- License Denials
- Set Aside Voluntary Declaration of Paternity or Judgment of Paternity
- Child Support Agreement

Visit www.occourts.org/self-help for more information.

Services available:

- Procedural Information
We can provide information about court procedures and how to move your case forward.
- Form Packets
We can send you forms and form packets for your case.
- Document Review
We can review your completed court forms before you file them. Submit your forms as a single PDF using the online request form at www.occourts.org/self-help (click on the blue banner). We will contact you within five (5) court days.

Get in Touch with Us

Complete the online form:

www.occourts.org/self-help

Please use Google Chrome or Microsoft Edge to complete the online form to request our services. We will contact you within five (5) court days.

In-person assistance:

Monday—Thursday: 8:00 a.m. — 4:00 p.m.
Friday: 8:00 a.m. — 12:00 p.m.

Make an appointment:

tinyurl.com/SHLJCappointment

We have in-person appointments available for our services at the Lamoreaux Justice Center. Currently, we do not review documents at these appointments.