Welcome to Department C15. In order to facilitate the efficient progress of your case, please pay close attention to these procedures and guidelines.

Effective May 15, 2017, Department C15 will no longer provide the services of an official court reporter. If the services of a certified shorthand reporter are desired the parties can stipulate and bring in their own reporter who preferably is proficient in live note. Parties can also follow the steps outlined in the Notice of Court Reporter Availability in Civil Courtrooms on the Court's website, located at: http://www.occourts.org/general-public/notices/general/2017-05-01\_CourtReporterAvailability\_Final.pdf.

1. All counsel and self-represented litigants (collectively "Parties") must read and be familiar with Division 3 of the Orange County Superior Court Local Rules, and with all applicable California Rules of Court ("CRC").
2. The Court expects all Parties to cooperate with each other to the fullest extent and to act at all times with civility and courtesy.
3. Ex Parte Motions must comply with CRC 3.1200 through 3.1207, including but not limited to the requirement that: "An applicant must make an affirmative factual showing in a declaration containing competent testimony based on personal knowledge of irreparable harm, immediate danger, or any other statutory basis for granting relief ex parte." CRC 3.1202 (c).
4. For Case Management Conferences (CMC), the Parties must be fully familiar with, and comply with as applicable, CC 3.720 through 3.734, including but not limited to the requirement that all Parties file a Case Management Statement in compliance with CRC 3.725.

TRIAL PROCEDURES

Trials are normally set at 9:00 a.m. on Monday, and normal trial days are Monday through Wednesday 9 a.m. through 4:15 p.m. The Parties must conduct an Issue Conference in compliance with Orange County Rule 317, and prepare and file all required items pursuant to that Rule (Statement of Compliance attached). See attached, Conduct in Jury Trials.

1. Exhibits

The Parties are to cooperate in preparing a joint exhibit list. If there are more than twelve exhibits, two (2) sets of exhibits in 3-ring binders, with the exhibit list identifying each such exhibit, and with number tabs separating each exhibit, shall be submitted to the Court (one for the Court and one for the witness dock). Each tab should bear the corresponding exhibit number. Every exhibit in the witness copy must have an exhibit tag filled out and attached (see attached). In a two party case, Plaintiff shall number its exhibits starting with 1; Defendants shall number its exhibits starting with 200. If in a particular case these numbers are not sufficient to cover all exhibits, the Parties are to cooperate in agreeing an appropriate number range for each party. If there are more than two Parties, the Parties are to cooperate in agreeing a number range for each party. No two Parties are to use the same number, and duplicate exhibits are to be avoided. Every page of each exhibit must be separately numbered.

Each exhibit should be moved into evidence as soon as admissibility has been established.

If any Party plans to use enlargements of exhibits (“blowups”) or transparencies for use with an overhead projector, such blowups and transparencies should not be used as original exhibits. Instead a normal size paper version of the exhibit should be marked and treated as the official exhibit. Blowups and transparencies are informally marked with the same exhibit number and referred to by the same exhibit number during trial.

If any Party plans to use a video exhibit, or videotaped depositions, the Court should be advised at the earliest opportunity since the Court’s permission is required before videos, tape recordings, overhead projectors and the like may be used in trial. It is each Party’s responsibility to supply the necessary equipment and to have it set up before trial or during a recess.

2. Depositions

Prior to commencement of trial, counsel shall lodge all depositions to be used in trial with the clerk and advise the Court if there are any depositions which are unsigned.

3. Witnesses

It is the responsibility of all Parties to arrange the appearance of witnesses to avoid delay, to confer among themselves during the trial as to when witnesses will be needed, to advise the Court at the earliest opportunity of any anticipated problems with the presence of witnesses, and to advise witnesses of the appropriate manner of testifying.

4. Stipulations

All stipulations must be discussed and agreed upon by all Parties before being called to the attention of the jury. A Party must not offer to stipulate to any matter within the hearing of the jury.

As to procedural stipulations, see attached.

5. Jury Instructions

All proposed jury instructions, special findings and verdict forms must be submitted to the clerk prior to commencement of the trial.

CONDUCT IN JURY TRIALS
The Honorable Peter J. Wilson
Department C15

1. Attorneys are to advise their witnesses of rulings that will apply to their testimony.
2. Do not make speaking objections. Simply state the Objection and the legal grounds.
3. Except for appropriate transitional comments, do not make any editorial comments prior to posing a question. (For example, “We have heard about the defendant’s negligent driving, did you see him change lanes without signaling?”)
4. Except for voir dire, opening and closing, do not address the jury directly. Ask the Court to do so on your behalf. If you have concerns about the jurors’ comfort, inform the Court of those concerns outside the presence of the jury.
5. Stipulations must be reduced to writing.
6. Sidebars will be kept to a minimum. Ensure that anticipated objections are dealt with in limine or otherwise outside the presence of the jury.
7. Challenges for cause, all motions, and arguments concerning evidentiary objections will be discussed at sidebar or otherwise outside the presence of the jury. Generally sidebars will not be on the record. Counsel can make their record later at a break to ensure jurors are not kept waiting by lengthy sidebars.
8. Attorneys are to speak from behind the counsel table or lectern unless the court has given permission to approach a witness. Permission to approach a particular witness need only be requested once for that witness.
9. The Court will conduct a Pretrial Conference on the scheduled trial date, at which the following issues, among others, will be discussed; jury selection, unusual evidentiary or instruction issues, scheduling, witness problems, summary of expected facts and defenses, pretrial motions.
