Thank you for choosing Keeping Kids Safe and for making a difference in your community!

Community Resource Guide

The Orange County Family Violence Council has made available a resource guide for victim and family services and programs in Orange County. The guide also lists some out of county resources. The binder is located in the KKS office and may be shared with parents as needed. The information was compiled by Family Court Service Manager, Cathy Harmon and Office Specialist, Ruth Avalos.

Intake Coordinators

New Procedure:

To request a Spanish Interpreter the Intake Coordinator may call CRIS (Court Reporter Interpreter Services) at 714-935-6133.

New Projects/Assignments

This year we are pleased to offer new and challenging assignments for volunteers/interns to help out in other areas of the court, such as in Family Court Services and in the Self Help Center. As further opportunities arise, interested individuals will be contacted by Carol to serve in various positions.

To Do:

General Reminders

*Please review your individual file folders daily for new updates from Carol.

*It is time to sign up for March & April assignments.

*The computer in the KKS office is available for everyone to complete their timesheets and to log data in the Keeping Kids Safe email/calendar.
