Rule 166. Selection of Executive Committee

Judge and commissioner members of the Executive Committee of the Court must be elected as provided in this rule in September of each year for a term of two years commencing January 1 immediately following their election.

B. Seniority Groups

The Presiding Judge must declare the order of seniority for judges and commissioners as of August 1 of each year. Seniority must be determined by the date of the judge's or commissioner's first oath of office as judge or commissioner of the Superior Court. Within the list of those judges and commissioners who became judges of the court as a result of unification on August 10, 1998, the order of seniority must be determined by the date of their first oath of office as a judge or commissioner of the Municipal Court. In cases where judges or commissioners have identical seniority dates, seniority must be determined alphabetically.

LOCAL RULES – SUPERIOR COURT of CALIFORNIA, COUNTY of ORANGE

C. Voting Groups

The judges must be divided into Voting Groups based on seniority as declared by the Presiding Judge as of August 1 of each year with five (5) voting groups designated in odd numbered years and four (4) voting groups designated in even numbered years according to the following formula: If the total number of judges declared by the Presiding Judge is evenly divisible by the number of voting groups to be elected in that year, the number of judges in each voting group will be equal; but if the total number of judges is not evenly divisible by the number of voting groups to be elected in that year, the number in each voting group must be augmented by one member in ascending order of seniority. (For example 110 judges divided by 4 voting groups = 27 judges with an excess of 2. The number in the voting groups in ascending order of seniority from Group 4 - Group 1 would be 28-28-27-27).

Each voting group must select one member and one alternate member.

Any judge assuming office between the commencement of the nomination process and the date of the election must be added to the group with the least seniority for voting purposes at the election.

D. Nomination Process

1. Judges

Judges wishing to be considered for election to serve as a member or alternate member of the Executive Committee must, between August 1 and August 15 of each year, nominate themselves in writing to the Chief Executive Officer and indicate their desire to be a candidate in their voting group. Judges may be considered for the position of member, alternate, or either member or alternate of the Executive Committee. The Chief Executive Officer shall prepare a ballot indicating the names of the judges nominated to serve on the Executive Committee in the voting groups.

2. Commissioners

Commissioners wishing to be considered for election to serve as a non-voting liaison member or alternate liaison member of the Executive Committee must, between August 1 and August 15 of each year, nominate themselves in writing to the Chief Executive Officer and indicate their desire to be a candidate. The Chief Executive Officer must prepare a ballot indicating the names of the commissioners nominated to serve on the Executive Committee as non-voting liaison members or alternate liaison members.

E. Election Process

1. Judges

In odd numbered years, the election of the five (5) judge members of the Executive Committee must be held at a meeting of the judges in September. The Chief Executive Officer must distribute the written ballot to the judges present at the meeting.

LOCAL RULES – SUPERIOR COURT of CALIFORNIA, COUNTY of ORANGE

In even numbered years, the election of the four (4) judge members of the Executive Committee must be held at a meeting of the judges in September or, at the discretion of the Presiding Judge, the Chief Executive Officer may distribute a written ballot indicating the names of the judges nominated to serve on the Executive Committee. The ballots will be counted and reported to the judges as directed by the Presiding Judge.

The Presiding Judge may direct further balloting as required in the event of a tie vote.

2. Commissioners

Each year, the commissioners must select one non-voting commissioner liaison member and one alternate to serve for a two year term.

In odd numbered years, the election of the commissioner members of the Executive Committee must be held at the meeting of the judges in September. The Chief Executive Officer of the Court must distribute the written ballot to the commissioners present at the meeting.

In even numbered years, the election of the commissioner members of the Executive Committee must be held at a meeting of the judges in September or, at the discretion of the Presiding Judge, the Chief Executive Officer may distribute a written ballot indicating the names of the commissioners nominated to serve on the Executive Committee. The ballots will be counted and reported to the commissioners and judges as directed by the Presiding Judge.

The Presiding Judge may direct further balloting as required in the event of a tie vote.

F. Post-Election Process

1. Judges

At the first meeting of the Executive Committee in January each year, the Executive Committee members and alternates will each be assigned to represent one of nine judge seniority groups in descending order of seniority.

For the purpose of determining the nine judge seniority groups, the order of seniority as declared by the Presiding Judge as of August 1 must be utilized. The judges will then be divided into the nine seniority groups according to the following formula: If the total number of judges as declared by the Presiding Judge is evenly divisible by 9, the number of judges in each seniority group will be equal; but if the total number of judges is not evenly divisible by 9, the number in each seniority group must be augmented by one member in ascending order of seniority from Group 9 - Group 1. (For example: 110 judges divided by 9 = 12 judges with an excess of 2. The number in the seniority groups in ascending order of seniority from Group 9 - Group 1 would be 13-13-12-12-12-12-12-12-12). Any judge assuming office after August 1 must be added to seniority group 9.

LOCAL RULES – SUPERIOR COURT of CALIFORNIA, COUNTY of ORANGE

2. Commissioners

At the first meeting of the Executive Committee in January of each year, the non-voting commissioner liaison members and alternates will each be assigned to represent one of the two commissioner seniority groups based on descending order of seniority.

For the purpose of determining the two commissioner seniority groups, the order of seniority as declared by the Presiding Judge as of August 1 must be utilized.

Group 1 will be the more senior group and Group 2 will be the less senior group. If the total number of commissioners is evenly divisible by 2, the number of commissioners in each seniority group will be equal; but if the total number of commissioners is not evenly divisible by 2, the number in seniority group 2 shall be augmented by one member. Any commissioner assuming office after August 1 shall be added to seniority group 2.
