

Final Declaration of Disclosure Self Help Information/Procedural Guidelines*

If you and your spouse have a written agreement that decides all issues of your dissolution OR if you are proceeding to a trial, you must now comply with the requirements regarding a Final Declaration of Disclosure.

Second Declaration - Final Declaration of Disclosure:

- Complete a new Declaration of Disclosure (form FL-140) and serve it on your spouse. Also, be sure to complete and attach those statements required to fully answer questions 3, 4 and 5 on the Declaration of Disclosure form (no forms are available for responding to questions 3-5).

You must also attach the following:

Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142)

and

Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150)

- When you have completed FL-140, FL-142 and FL-150 attach the forms & statements to the Declaration of Disclosure and serve on your spouse. Do NOT file them with the Court.
- Finally, in order to show the Court that you have served these forms on your spouse, you must complete questions 1 and 2 on the Declaration Regarding Service of Declaration of Disclosure (form FL-141) and file this form with the Family Law Clerks Office, 7th floor, 341 City Drive, Orange, CA 92863.
- NOTE: You and your spouse may waive your right to receive the Final Declaration of Disclosure by completing a Waiver of Final Declaration of Disclosure (FL-1125). Both you and your spouse, and any attorney representing either of you, must sign and file this form with the Family Law Clerks Office.

Family Law forms are available on the Orange County Superior Court's website: www.occourts.org and California Courts Self Help Center, www.courtinfo.gov

*The Self Help Information/Procedural Guidelines are intended to provide basic assistance and are not a substitute for legal advice.