Administrative Order No. 23/05

Statement of Compliance for Qualified Domestic Relations Order (Family Law)

In January 2023, Family Law operations expanded their electronic filing system to now allow for submission of all Qualified Domestic Relations Orders. At the direction of the Family Law Supervising Judge, court staff will process the electronic filed order with conformed copies being returned via the electronic system.

IT IS ORDERED that, effective immediately, a completed STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE FOR QUALIFIED DOMESTIC RELATIONS ORDER (FAMILY LAW) form must be submitted with every Qualified Domestic Relation Order if the order is filed electronically with the Orange County Superior Court Family Law Division. The form must be submitted as a separate document and not attached to the Qualified Domestic Relation Order.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 27th day of February 2023, at Santa Ana California.
