

NAME OF CASE (OCSC Case No.)
RULINGS ON MOTIONS IN LIMINE

These pretrial rulings are necessarily made at the outset of the case at a time when the Court has limited knowledge of the evidence that will be presented.

If counsel considers that in the course of the trial circumstances have changed such that the Court should reconsider its ruling, that subject must be addressed with the Court outside the presence of the jury before it is mentioned in open court.

Counsel are ordered to instruct associates, clients, witnesses, and other persons under their control that no mention or display will be made in the presence of the jury of the matter excluded by any of these rulings.

Once trial has commenced, no further motions may be filed with the Court without first seeking leave of the Court.
