

Original Local Rule 355

Rule 355. Delay Reduction – General Civil

All civil cases other than unlawful detainer and cases exempted under the California Rules of Court will be set for a case management conference (CMC) approximately 150 days after the complaint is filed. Upon receiving notice of the CMC, the party initiating the case (e.g. Plaintiff/Petitioner) must provide notice of the CMC to all other named parties (e.g. Defendant/Respondent). Parties who file pleadings that add parties to the case must provide notice of the CMC to the newly added parties when serving the pleading.

(Rule 355 revised effective July 1, 2021; revised and renumbered effective July 1, 2009; renumbered as Rule 342 effective July 1, 1998)