AMENDED Administrative Order: A-200-3-2020

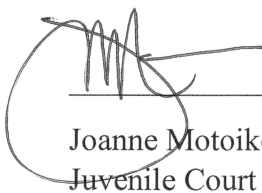

TEMPORARY SCHEDULE FOR DETAINED AND NON-DETAILED

DETENTION HEARINGS IN DEPENDENCY CASES

IT IS ORDERED: In response to the May 26, 2020, Order of Chief Justice Tani Cantil-Sakauye, Chair of the California Judicial Council (hereinafter “May 26, 2020, Gov. Code § 68115 Order”) and the Orange County Superior Court’s “Fourth Implementation Order Re: Emergency Order (Gov. Code, § 68115)” issued on May 26, 2020, (hereinafter “Fourth Implementation Order”) as well as the Juvenile Court’s General Order No. 11: Re: Juvenile Court Closure (hereinafter “General Order No. 11”), the Juvenile Court is instituting the following scheduling procedures for detention hearings in dependency cases:

1. Pursuant to the May 26, 2020, Gov. Code § 68115 Order, the Fourth Implementation Order, General Order No. 11, and Government Code section 68115, subdivision (a)(11), detention hearings conducted pursuant to Welfare and Institutions Code section 315, regarding the removal of a child from the custody of a parent(s) or other custodial caregivers, will be heard on the third judicial day after the petition to declare a dependent child has been filed.
2. Non-detained detention hearings in dependency cases will be calendared every Monday (within 15 court days from the date the petition was filed) for each week of the court’s closure.
3. The scheduling of cases pursuant to this Order will begin with those petitions filed on June 1, 2020.
4. This Order may be extended beyond June 19, 2020, and in that case, the scheduling set forth in this Order will remain in effect unless and until modified or rescinded by a later Administrative Order.
