ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 20/20

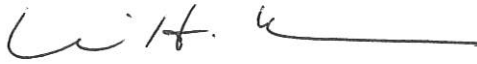

EMERGENCY ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER FOR EMERGENCY BAIL REDUCTIONS AND OWN RECOGNIZANCE

On June 10, 2020, the Judicial Council of the State of California voted to rescind, effective June 20, 2020, the COVID-19 Statewide Emergency Bail Schedule adopted as Emergency Rule of Court, Rule 4, as California begins a phase re-opening and courts begin to restore services shuttered due to the pandemic.

On April 14, 2020, the Presiding Judge of the Superior Court of Orange County issued THIRD AMENDED ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 20/12: ADOPTION OF STATEWIDE EMERGENCY BAIL SCHEDULED AUTHORIZED BY THE JUDICIAL COUNCIL OF CALIFORNIA. This Administrative Order is ordered to be rescinded effective June 19, 2020.

On March 27, 2020, the Presiding Judge of the Superior Court of Orange County issued ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 20/10: EMERGENCY ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER FOR EMERGENCY BAIL REDUCTIONS AND OWN RECOGNIZANCE. This Administrative Order is ordered to be reinstated effective June 20, 2020.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 19th day of June 2020, at Santa Ana California.

Kirk H. Nakamura
Presiding Judge
