2026 YOUNG MEN'S AND WOMEN'S CIVIC LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

CIVIC LEARNING IN ACTION AWARD

TURNING IDEAS INTO ACTION, CREATING CHANGE IN YOUR COMMUNITY.

TAKE YOUR IDEA BACK TO YOUR SCHOOL OR COMMUNITY

Continue working with your group, classmates and community partners to put your project into action.

IMPLEMENT YOUR PROJECT

Take real steps to carry out your plan and make a positive impact in your community.

CREATE A SHORT REEL

Show us your journey! Share your project, progress, challenges, lessons learned, and accomplishments in a short, engaging video (reel format).

SUBMIT YOUR REEL

Once your project is underway, contact the Orange County Superior Court – Community Engagement for submission details.

BE RECOGNIZED

Winning groups will receive an award and lunch at your school, presented by an Orange County Superior Court judicial officer!

SUBMISSION DEADLINE

JANUARY 31, 2027

WINNING PROJECTS WILL BE:

- Featured on the Orange County Superior Court's social media channels
- Participating schools will be tagged and celebrated
- Award and lunch presented by a judicial officer

ABOUT THE AWARD

The Civic Learning in Action Award encourages student groups to take the ideas developed in the Civic Leadership Conference and turn them into real action in their schools and communities. Submit a short video (reel) showing your project, progress, challenges, lessons learned, and accomplishments. Selected groups will be recognized for their creativity, collaboration, and meaningful efforts to create positive change through civic engagement.
