The Mentorship Program aims to provide guidance to local attorneys through mentorship by Orange County Judges, thus increasing the local applicant pool for new judges. The Judicial Mentor Program is a collaboration between the executive and judicial branches to advance the shared goal of an inclusive judiciary that reflects California's diversity. The Judicial Mentorship Program works with local bar associations, nonprofit legal organizations, and others in the legal community to identify and encourage a diverse pool of candidates to apply for appointment to the bench.

The Judicial Mentor Program, led by Judge H. Shaina Colover and Judge Julie Swain, comprises a diverse collective of Orange County Judges committed to advancing inclusion and diversity within the judiciary.

Program Qualifications include:

- Admitted to practice law in CA for at least 10 years
- In good standing with CA State Bar
- Have not yet applied for judicial appointment
