Temporary Judge Recruitment New Three-year Cycle Opens

Santa Ana – The Court is pleased to announce the opening of the Orange County Superior Court recruitment process for Temporary Judges, covering the next three-year cycle to begin fiscal year 2019-2020.

If you are interested in becoming a Temporary Judge, please read the Application Letter and complete the Temporary Judge Application. The Application Letter describes the minimum qualifications and selection criteria, which will be used in this application process.

Attorneys who are not currently active in the Orange County Superior Court Temporary Judge Program and who would like to be considered must complete the full application process. Those in the program currently must complete a renewal application.

The Court will require those who successfully pass the application process to attend two mandatory three-hour training sessions in late spring/early summer 2019. Additional training will be required for specialty areas.

Applications must be received by December 31, 2018. Late applications will not be accepted.

For more information and to access the application letter and temporary judge application; use the following link: <http://www.occourts.org/general-public/temp-judge-program/>.

Completed applications should be submitted using one of the methods below:

By email to: TemporaryJudgeProgram@occourts.org

By mail to: Superior Court of California, County of Orange County Superior Court
