Traffic Remote Hearings Platform Change

Santa Ana, CA – The Superior Court of California, County of Orange is migrating remote Traffic appearances from WebEx to Zoom for Government effective Friday, May 3, 2024.

Individuals scheduled for Traffic remote appearances calendared on or after May 3, 2024, will access new Zoom remote hearing instructions and remote hearing links from the Court's Traffic Remote Hearing webpage: <https://www.occourts.org/divisions/traffic/traffic-remote-appearance-info>

The public is encouraged to take advantage of all remote services.

Individuals scheduled must select the appropriate courtroom link as indicated in the notice they received regarding their remote hearing.

In the event a hearing participant is disconnected from the hearing and is unable to reconnect in a timely manner, they can send an email to the appropriate department as shown below:

Remote Hearing Department	Email Address
Central (Department CR1)	LiveCR1@occourts.org
Harbor (Department HR1)	LiveHR1@occourts.org
North (Department NR1)	LiveNR1@occourts.org
West (Department WR1)	LiveWR1@occourts.org

The public must not submit case inquiries or correspondence utilizing the above email addresses as they are strictly for notifying the Court that they have been disconnected from the remote hearing. Any emails received that are not related to a participant disconnection issue will not be addressed.

Correspondents must submit correspondence regarding their case online through the My Court Portal or by standard mail.
