Helpful Terms

Ending a Marriage or Domestic Partnership

Dissolution of Marriage: The legal process to end a marriage or domestic partnership. The court can make orders about property, debts, spousal support, and, if there are children, custody, visitation and child support.

Legal Separation: You remain legally married, but the Court can make orders about property, debts, spousal support, and, if there are children, custody and visitation. Some people choose legal separation for religious, financial, or personal reasons. If you would like to later get a divorce, you can contact Self-Help for next steps.

Annulment/Nullity: A legal process that treats the marriage as if it never legally happened. The Court can grant an annulment only for certain reasons, such as if a spouse was already married, underage, lacked consent, or if the marriage was entered into under fraud or force.

Domestic Partnership: Two unrelated adults who choose to share their lives together in an intimate and committed relationship by filing a Declaration of Domestic Partnership with the California Secretary of State. It is not federally recognized for purposes of federal taxes or for any federal government benefit.

Property and Debts

Community Property: All assets and debts acquired by either party between the date of marriage and date of separation. Property acquired during the marriage belongs to both spouses equally, regardless of how title is held. Debts incurred during the marriage are usually the responsibility of both spouses.

Separate Property: All assets and debts acquired before the date of marriage and after the date of separation. Gifts or inheritance received before, during, or after date of marriage or separation is considered the separate property of the receiving spouse.

Custody and Parenting

Legal Custody: Making decisions for the child's health, safety, education, and well-being.

- Sole legal custody: One parent makes the decisions.
- Joint legal custody: Both parents share decision-making.

Physical Custody: Where the child lives.

- Sole physical custody: The child lives with one parent. The other parent usually has visitation (parenting time).
- Joint physical custody: The child lives with both parents.

Visitation (also called parenting time): The time the child spends with each parent.

Different visitation orders can be requested and ordered by the Court:

- Reasonable visitation: When parents agree on visits, but a court order does not list exact days and/or times.
- Scheduled visitation: A visitation schedule with specific days and times.
- Supervised visitation: Visits occur with another adult or professional present for safety concerns.
- No visitation: Visits are not allowed due to serious safety concerns.

Support

Spousal Support: Money one spouse may be ordered to pay to the other for living expenses. The amount and length of support depend on factors like income, needs, and the length of the marriage.

Orders that can be requested:

- Request support: If you want the Court to order spousal support to be paid to you or your spouse.
- Terminate Court's ability to award support: If you want the Court to order that no spousal support will be paid now or in the future to you or your spouse.
- Reserve jurisdiction over spousal support: If you want the Court to decide spousal support later, after your judgment is entered, should you or your spouse need it.

Child Support: Money to pay for the child's living expenses. The amount is based on parent's income, time spent with the child, and other factors.

If you do not file your Response on time, the court may make orders affecting your marriage or domestic partnership, your property, and custody of your children. You may be ordered to pay support and attorney fees and costs.

Una carta o llamada telefónica o una audiencia de la corte no basta para protegerlo.

NOTICE—RESTRaining ORDERS ARE ON PAGE 2:

These restraining orders are effective against both spouses or domestic partners until the petition is dismissed, a judgment is entered, or the court makes further orders. They are enforceable anywhere in California by any law enforcement officer who has received or seen a copy of them.

AVISO—LAS ÓRDENES DE RESTRICCIÓN SE ENCUENTRAN EN LA PÁGINA 2:

Las órdenes de restricción están en vigencia en cuanto a ambos cónyuges o miembros de la pareja de hecho hasta que se despidan la petición, se emita un fallo o la corte dé otras órdenes. Cualquier agencia del orden público que haya recibido o visto una copia de estas órdenes puede hacerlas acatar en cualquier lugar de California.

FEE WAIVER: If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the clerk for a fee waiver form. The court may order you to pay back all or part of the fees and costs that the court waived for you or the other party.

EXENCIÓN DE CUOTAS: Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario un formulario de exención de cuotas. La corte puede ordenar que usted pague, ya sea en parte o por completo, las cuotas y costos de la corte previamente exentos a petición de usted o de la otra parte.

STANDARD FAMILY LAW RESTRAINING ORDERS

Starting immediately, you and your spouse or domestic partner are restrained from:

1. removing the minor children of the parties from the state or applying for a new or replacement passport for those minor children without the prior written consent of the other party or an order of the court;
2. cashing, borrowing against, canceling, transferring, disposing of, or changing the beneficiaries of any insurance or other coverage, including life, health, automobile, and disability, held for the benefit of the parties and their minor children;
3. transferring, encumbering, hypothecating, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property, real or personal, whether community, quasi-community, or separate, without the written consent of the other party or an order of the court, except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life; and
4. creating a nonprobate transfer or modifying a nonprobate transfer in a manner that affects the disposition of property subject to the transfer, without the written consent of the other party or an order of the court. Before revocation of a nonprobate transfer can take effect or a right of survivorship to property can be eliminated, notice of the change must be filed and served on the other party.

You must notify each other of any proposed extraordinary expenditures at least five business days prior to incurring these extraordinary expenditures and account to the court for all extraordinary expenditures made after these restraining orders are effective. However, you may use community property, quasi-community property, or your own separate property to pay an attorney to help you or to pay court costs.

ÓRDENES DE RESTRICCIÓN ESTÁNDAR DE DERECHO FAMILIAR

En forma inmediata, usted y su cónyuge o pareja de hecho tienen prohibido:

1. llevarse del estado de California a los hijos menores de las partes, o solicitar un pasaporte nuevo o de repuesto para los hijos menores, sin el consentimiento previo por escrito de la otra parte o sin una orden de la corte;
2. cobrar, pedir prestado, cancelar, transferir, deshacerse o cambiar el nombre de los beneficiarios de cualquier seguro u otro tipo de cobertura, como de vida, salud, vehículo y discapacidad, que tenga como beneficiario(s) a las partes y su(s) hijo(s) menor(es);
3. transferir, gravar, hipotecar, ocultar o deshacerse de cualquier manera de cualquier propiedad, inmueble o personal, ya sea comunitaria, cuasicomunitaria o separada, sin el consentimiento escrito de la otra parte o una orden de la corte, excepto en el curso habitual de actividades personales y comerciales o para satisfacer las necesidades de la vida; y
4. crear o modificar una transferencia no testamentaria de manera que afecte la asignación de una propiedad sujeta a transferencia, sin el consentimiento por escrito de la otra parte o una orden de la corte. Antes de que se pueda eliminar la revocación de una transferencia no testamentaria, se debe presentar ante la corte un aviso del cambio y hacer una entrega legal de dicho aviso a la otra parte.

Cada parte tiene que notificar a la otra sobre cualquier gasto extraordinario propuesto por lo menos cinco días hábiles antes de realizarlo, y rendir cuenta a la corte de todos los gastos extraordinarios realizados después de que estas órdenes de restricción hayan entrado en vigencia. No obstante, puede usar propiedad comunitaria, cuasicomunitaria o suya separada para pagar a un abogado que lo ayude o para pagar los costos de la corte.

AVISO—ACCESO A SEGURO DE SALUD MÁS ECONÓMICO:

¿Necesita seguro de salud a un costo asequible, ya sea para usted o alguien en su hogar? Si es así, puede presentar una solicitud con Covered California. O llame a Covered California al 1-800-300-0213.

WARNING—IMPORTANT INFORMATION

California law provides that, for purposes of division of property upon dissolution of a marriage or domestic partnership or upon legal separation, property acquired by the parties during marriage or domestic partnership in joint form is presumed to be community property. If either party to this action should die before the jointly held community property is divided, the language in the deed that characterizes how title is held (i.e., joint tenancy, tenants in common, or community property) will be controlling, and not the community property presumption. You should consult your attorney if you want the community property presumption to be written into the recorded title to the property.

ADVERTENCIA—IMPORTACIÓN IMPORTANTE

De acuerdo a la ley de California, las propiedades adquiridas por las partes durante su matrimonio o pareja de hecho en forma conjunta se consideran propiedad comunitaria para fines de la división de bienes que ocurre cuando se produce una disolución o separación legal del matrimonio o pareja de hecho. Si cualquiera de las partes de este caso llega a fallecer antes de que se divida la propiedad comunitaria de tenencia conjunta, el destino de la misma quedará determinado por las cláusulas de la escritura correspondiente que describen su tenencia (por ej., tenencia conjunta, tenencia en común o propiedad comunitaria) y no por la presunción de propiedad comunitaria. Si quiere que la presunción comunitaria quede registrada en la escritura de la propiedad, debería consultar con un abogado.

NOTICE: You may redact (black out) social security numbers from any written material filed with the court in this case other than a form used to collect child, spousal or partner support.

NOTICE—CANCELLATION OF RIGHTS: Dissolution or legal separation may automatically cancel the rights of a domestic partner or spouse under the other domestic partner's or spouse's will, trust, retirement plan, power of attorney, pay-on-death bank account, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy, and any other similar thing. It does not automatically cancel the right of a domestic partner or spouse as beneficiary of the other partner's or spouse's life insurance policy. You should review these matters, as well as any credit cards, other credit accounts, insurance policies, retirement plans, and credit reports, to determine whether they should be changed or whether you should take any other actions. INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING FORM FL-160

Property Declaration (form FL-160) is a multipurpose form, which may be filed with the court as an attachment to a Petition or Response or served on the other party to comply with disclosure requirements in place of a Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142). Courts may also require a party to file a Property Declaration as an attachment to a Request to Enter Default (form FL-165) or Judgment (form FL-180).

When filing a Property Declaration with the court, do not include private financial documents listed below.

Identify the type of declaration completed

1. Check "Community and Quasi-Community Property Declaration" on page 1 to use Property Declaration (form FL-160) to provide a combined list of community and quasi-community property assets and debts. Quasi-community property is property you own outside of California that would be community property if it were located in California.
2. Do not combine a separate property declaration with a community and quasi-community property declaration. Check "Separate Property Declaration" on page 1 when using Property Declaration to provide a list of separate property assets and debts.

Description of the Property Declaration chart

Pages 1 and 2

1. Column A is used to provide a brief description of each item of separate or community or quasi-community property.
2. Column B is used to list the date the item was acquired.
3. Column C is used to list the item's gross fair market value (an estimate of the amount of money you could get if you sold the item to another person through an advertisement).
4. Column D is used to list the amount owed on the item.
5. Column E is used to indicate the net fair market value of each item. The net fair market value is calculated by subtracting the dollar amount in column D from the amount in column C ("C minus D").
6. Column F is used to show a proposal on how to divide (or confirm) the item described in column A.

1. Column A is used to provide a brief description of each separate or community or quasi-community property debt.

Instructions for Step 2: Have Your Spouse Served with Copies of Your Filed Forms

1. Have Your Spouse Served

Before your case can move forward, your spouse must be given copies of your filed court forms and a blank Response (FL-120) form. This is called service of process.

Do not give the following forms to your spouse because they are confidential:

1. Request to Waive Court Fees (FW-001) (if requested)
2. Order on Court Fee Waiver (FW-003) (if the order is granted)
3. Confidential Party Identification and Notice of Related Cases (Form L-1120)

Who Can Serve Filed Forms to Your Spouse?

You can't serve the filed court forms and blank Response yourself. The next page explains how your spouse can be served.

The forms must be served to your spouse by:

- Any adult 18 or older (not you)
- A friend or family member
- A professional process server (separate non-court fees apply)
- The Sheriff's Office (The Orange County Sheriff's Office can only serve individuals within Orange County and service fees may apply)

 For more information, visit ocsheriff.gov/civil

2. Complete and File Your Proof of Service Form

After your spouse is served with your filed court forms and a blank Response, a completed and signed Proof of Service (FL-115) form must be filed with the Court.

The Proof of Service must include:

- What filed court forms were served
- How the forms were served
- The place where the forms were served
- The date and time of when the forms were served
- The server's name, address, and phone number
- The server's signature

3. Your Next Step: Complete, File, & Serve Your Financial Information

Please refer to the Financial Information - Declaration of Disclosure \(SHC-D-03\) Packet for more information.

Ways to Have My Spouse Served

1. Personal Service (Most Common)

- Your spouse is given the filed court forms + blank Response forms directly from an adult that is not you.
- 🕒 Your spouse's deadline to respond: 30 days after the day they were served

2. Substituted Service

Used when personal service is not possible after reasonable attempts.

- Your server must complete Certificate of Due Diligence \(L-849\)
- The filed court forms + blank Response forms are left with an adult at your spouse's home or workplace
- A copy of the filed court forms + blank Response form must also be mailed to the same address
- 🕒 Your spouse's deadline to respond: 40 days from the mailing date (30 days + 10 days for mailing)

3. Service by Mail with Notice and Acknowledgment

Allows service by mail only if your spouse cooperates.

Your server mails:

- One copy of the filed court forms + blank Response forms;
- Two copies of Notice and Acknowledgment of Receipt \(FL-117\); and
- A stamped return envelope

⚠ Important:

- Service is not complete until your spouse signs and returns the FL-117.
- You must file Proof of Service FL-115 and FL-117.
- If your spouse does not return the form, another service method is required.

🕒 Your spouse's deadline to respond: 30 days from the date they sign

4. Service to a State Outside of California Within the United States

- You may use registered or certified mail with return receipt requested.
- Your server mails one copy of the filed court forms + blank Response forms, and your spouse must sign the receipt.
- Attach the signed return receipt to your Proof of Service (FL-115) form before filing with the Court.

🚫 This method cannot be used if your spouse lives in California.

🕒 Your spouse's deadline to respond: 40 days from the date of mailing

5. Service by Publication or Posting

Used only if you cannot locate your spouse.

You must:

- File an Application and Order for Posting or Publication \(SHC-FL-02\) with the Court and get a Court Order
- You must show documented, strong efforts to find your spouse, such as checking their last known address, calling known phone numbers, contacting family or friends, and searching online, social media, and public records.

Your 2 options:

- Publication: Notice printed in a newspaper (fees apply)
- Posting: Notice posted at the courthouse (no cost, but a fee waiver must be approved)

🕒 Your spouse's deadline to respond: 58 days from the date of publication or posting

6. International Service

If your spouse lives in another country, you may need to follow special international rules under the Hague Convention to properly give them copies of your filed court forms. This process can be more complicated and may take longer.

💻 Contact Self-Help Services for help before starting international service.

What Happens After Your Spouse is Served?

Once your spouse has been properly served with your filed court forms and blank Response forms, the next steps in your case will depend on what your spouse does.

1. ⏰ Waiting for a Response

Your spouse has a limited amount of time to file a Response with the court. The amount of time depends on how your spouse was served with the filed court forms. See the previous page for the specific deadlines.

2. 🚫 If Your Spouse Does Not Respond

If your spouse is an active-duty service member, they can't be defaulted. Please see Self-Help Services for additional information.*

• Default

If your spouse does not file a Response within the required time, filing a Request to Enter Default (FL-165) allows your case to move forward without your spouse participating in the court process.

• Stipulated Judgment (Agreement Between the Parties)

Even if your spouse does not file a Response and you request a default, you and your spouse may still agree on the terms of your case. If both of you reach an agreement, you may file a Stipulated Judgment. Both parties must sign the court forms, including a written agreement, and Respondent's signature must be notarized.

3. 📁 Complete, File, & Serve Your Financial Information

If your spouse was served by publication or posting, then you can skip this step.*

Otherwise, you must complete and share your financial information with your spouse. This step is required in every case.

- The disclosures provide information about property, debts, income, and expenses.
- You must complete this step even if you believe there is no property or debt to divide.
- The court cannot finalize your case until your Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure (FL-141) is filed with the Court.

 Please contact Self-Help Services if you have questions or need assistance with the next steps in your case.

- In person: Lamoreaux Justice Center or Central Justice Center
- Virtual (remote kiosk): Any branch court, including the Costa Mesa Justice Complex

(SIGNATURE OF ATTORNEY FOR RESPONDENT)

FOR MORE INFORMATION: Read Legal Steps for a Divorce or Legal Separation (form FL-107-INFO) and visit "Families Change" at www.familieschange.ca.gov — an online guide for parents and children going through divorce or separation.

NOTICE: You may redact (black out) social security numbers from any written material filed with the court in this case other than a form used to collect child, spousal or partner support.

NOTICE—CANCELLATION OF RIGHTS: Dissolution or legal separation may automatically cancel the rights of a domestic partner or spouse under the other domestic partner's or spouse's will, trust, retirement plan, power of attorney, pay-on-death bank account, survivorship rights to any property owned in joint tenancy, and any other similar thing. It does not automatically cancel the right of a domestic partner or spouse as beneficiary of the other partner's or spouse's life insurance policy. You should review these matters, as well as any credit cards, other credit accounts, insurance policies, retirement plans, and credit reports, to determine whether they should be changed or whether you should take any other actions. Some changes may require the agreement of your partner or spouse or a court order.

The original response must be filed in the court with proof of service of a copy on Petitioner.

INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING FORM FL-160

Property Declaration (form FL-160) is a multipurpose form, which may be filed with the court as an attachment to a Petition or Response or served on the other party to comply with disclosure requirements in place of a Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142). Courts may also require a party to file a Property Declaration as an attachment to a Request to Enter Default (form FL-165) or Judgment (form FL-180).

When filing a Property Declaration with the court, do not include private financial documents listed below.

Identify the type of declaration completed

1. Check "Community and Quasi-Community Property Declaration" on page 1 to use Property Declaration (form FL-160) to provide a combined list of community and quasi-community property assets and debts. Quasi-community property is property you own outside of California that would be community property if it were located in California.
2. Do not combine a separate property declaration with a community and quasi-community property declaration. Check "Separate Property Declaration" on page 1 when using Property Declaration to provide a list of separate property assets and debts.

Description of the Property Declaration chart

Pages 1 and 2

1. Column A is used to provide a brief description of each item of separate or community or quasi-community property.
2. Column B is used to list the date the item was acquired.
3. Column C is used to list the item's gross fair market value (an estimate of the amount of money you could get if you sold the item to another person through an advertisement).
4. Column D is used to list the amount owed on the item.
5. Column E is used to indicate the net fair market value of each item. The net fair market value is calculated by subtracting the dollar amount in column D from the amount in column C ("C minus D").
6. Column F is used to show a proposal on how to divide (or confirm) the item described in column A.

1. Column A is used to provide a brief description of each separate or community or quasi-community property debt.
