TEMPORARY CONSERVATORSHIP

COMMON WORDS

Conservator: An adult who wants to be responsible for caring for an adult who cannot care for themselves.

Conservatee: An adult who cannot care for themselves due to a disability.

Conservatorship of the Person: Conservator wants Court permission to care for and protect the Conservatee's physical and medical needs.

Conservatorship of the Estate: Conservator wants Court permission to manage and protect the Conservatee's finances.

OVERVIEW

A Conservatorship is a court process where a Judge appoints a Conservator to care for a Conservatee. There are two types of Conservatorships—
Temporary Conservatorship ("TC") and Permanent Conservatorship ("PC").

The TC can ensure the care, protection, and support of the Conservatee between the initial filing of paperwork for PC and the PC hearing day, which is currently being scheduled for 2-3 months after filing. The TC hearing will be scheduled approximately 5-10 Court Days after filing.

The person filing the Conservatorship, known as Petitioner, may ask for PC only or TC and PC. If both are chosen from the start, both must be filed together. Petitioner cannot only file the TC to start the case.

TC may be of the Person, Estate, or both.

PROCEDURE

Complete Your Forms

All TC Forms you need are included in this packet.

☐ GC-020: Notice of Hearing

Informs people and agencies with the right to know what has been filed, the hearing date, time, and location.

Note: If you are reading this packet on an internet enabled device, court forms in BOLD can be clicked on to open and view electronically. You may also answer the questions on Page 3. Your answers will be automatically added to the correct areas of the forms.

Not all areas of the Forms will be completed. You must still review each page and make sure that all questions that apply to your case are answered.

Make sure that your answers to questions asking for an explanation are detailed and describe the need for the TC in detail. A Judge will decide to grant or deny your TC based on your written responses. After you submit your TC forms, you will not have the opportunity to provide more details.

If the Judge agrees that TC is necessary, they will sign Form GC-141- Orders and Form GC-150-Letters. It the Judge does not agree, remember that you still must prepare for the PC hearing.
