KING, RICHARD M.., JUDGE, SUPERIOR COURT, ORANGE COUNTY
Appointed by Governor Gray Davis December 28, 2000.

Employment: Orange County District Attorney's Office, 1981-2000; Homicide Prosecutor, 15 years, Homicide Supervisor 8 years, 115 jury trials including 30+ murder trials and 6 death penalty trials; Supervisor of the Sexual Assault Unit 1999-2000; Professor of Law (Evidence, ethics, trial practice, death penalty) Western State University 1996-2005; Attorney, Munns, Kofford, Hoffman, Hunt & Throckmorton. Newport Beach, CA specializing in construction litigation 1980-1981; Trial attorney, Veterans' Administration, Washington DC specializing in construction litigation 1978-1980.

Education: J.D., University of San Diego School of Law 1977; BA University of California, Los Angeles 1974.

Military: Enlisted United States Navy November 1965; assigned To Seabees (construction) and achieved rank of Equipment Operator 2nd Class (operated bulldozers, etc in the construction of roads, air strips, and bridges), two tours (eighteen months) in Vietnam 1967-1969, awarded Navy Achievement Medal with Combat "V" (after 1st attack, assisted corpsman in treating wounded, after 2nd attack, retrieved wounded and dead for helicopter evacuation), honorably discharged 1969.